NEVADA'S INSANE ASYLUM.

The question as to whether Nevada shall continue to farm out her insane wards is again receiving discussion. The Reveille has taken up the cudgels against the management at Stockton, and makes direct charges. That paper believes that there is at least one man in charge of the physicians who has recovered his sanity, and implies that there may be others. The Silver State shows that a cure would be directly against the interest of the contractors, Messrs. Langdon and Clark. The Virginia Chronicle thinks it is cheaper at present than we could hope to make it with an asylum at home. The Enterprise demands an investigation of the direct charge made by the Reveille, and upon purely selfish grounds thinks a change advisable. The idea that a State which has more money than it can spend, should stop to argue this question is certainly novel. There is no reason why we can not save money by the building of an asylum. There are excellent reasons why the State should build one, even at a loss of money. Baby farms and private mad-houses are not worthy of State support, nor should any State commit its unfortunate citizens to the care of contractors, whose mercy will generally be measured by the compensation received. Every precedent demands that the State shall maintain some portion of its dignity and independence. The proposition is so self-evident that the State's position is worthy of ridicule, not of argument. We believe that Nevada is a State and not a county in California, that the practice of boarding her insane in that State is no more praiseworthy than that of crossing the border is search of State officers and Senators.

TRI-WEEKLY HERALD.

We have received the first number of the Tri-Weekly Herald, published at Nevada city, Cal., by J. B. Gray, E. A. Davis, and H. L. Herzinger. It is a seven column paper, neat and tasty in its make-up, and by comparison with the other antiquated sheets of that burg, may be considered an important innovation. The publishers are all practical printers, and young men of industrious habits. The first named, J. B. Gray, was employed upon the Gazette during the first two years of its existence, and was ever found prompt, accommodating and reliable. We have every reason to believe that his associates are equally deserving, and we therefore heartily wish them success. Without any animosity toward the other journals of that city, or more than a desire to see the home of our boyhood properly represented and a worthy effort succeed, we think we can truly say that Nevada city sadly needed new blood and a different degree of energy in her journalistic field. The Transcript, long regarded as the representative of Nevada city interests, has long since ceased to regard the legitimate welfare of its constituents, and, instead of keeping pace with its years and opportunities for usefulness, has come to regard its own ends as paramount to the welfare of its supporters. Time was when its editorial and local utterances were looked for with interest and regarded as the opinions of an able exponent of the people. But its first editors were its ablest, and the pens that made the Transcript have had no worthy successors. We wish, then, the new venture success, because an enterprising, consistent, and independent journal is what the people of Nevada city need, and farther, because the projectors are worthy and deserving. We like the tone of the Herald's salutatory, and premise that in the selection of an editor the "boys" have shown judgment worthy of riper years.

At Virginia City, Monday, the Democrats elected the Mayor, two Aldermen and the City Attorney. The rest are uncertain.

Two young men, twenty-one and twenty-two years of age, were drowned on Sunday near Limerick, Alameda county, while bathing.

TUESDAY NEWS.

Ninety-one Armenian villages have been plundered by the Kurds in the District of Chemistrah.

The Tuilleries Commission at Paris has resolved to recommend the restoration of that ruined palace, at a cost of about 4,000,000 francs.

Small-pox is again epidemic in London, there being 850 cases in the hospitals.

The President has appointed Stephen B. Packard, of Louisiana, to be Consul at Liverpool.

The House Committee on Education and Labor have agreed upon a bill making it a misdemeanor for the master of any vessel to take more than fifteen Chinese passengers, male or female, to the United States after January 1, 1879.

Famine prevails in Eastern Russia.

The transit of Mercury was observed at Summit Station, on the C. P. R. R.

The Workingmen's club of the third precinct of the Twelfth ward is practically broken up by conflicting interests.

Registrar Kaplan in San Francisco is unearthing many frauds which happened at the last election in that city.

Kearney is deposed from the position of Chairman of the State Central Committee of the Workingmen's party.

Observations were taken from the United States Observatory in Omaha yesterday for the transit of Mercury by Professor Andrea and party, French astronomers. The transit commenced at 7:44 A. M., but the sun was obscured by clouds. The sky cleared about noon. Only three photographs were taken up to 1 P. M., after which seventy-five photographs were taken to the time of exit, which was at 3:17 P. M. The observations are regarded as successful and satisfactory.

Schurz recommends the continuance of all prosecutions in California and Nevada for timber depredations until the next term of the Courts in which the suits are pending. He does this for the purpose of giving Congress time to legislate on the subject.

Judge Cole, of Eureka, last Saturday sentenced Kelley, convicted of assault with intent to rob, to three years; Frank Kiger, grand larceny, one year; and James Tickle, assault with intent to do bodily injury, to two years in the State Prison.

MARRIED.

FERRY-MORRISSEY-In Reno, May 8th, by Justice C. A. Richardson, Mr. G. W. Ferry to Miss E. Morrissey, both of Suisun, Solano county, Cal.

BORN.

HUFFAKER-Near Huffaker's Station, May 8th, to the wife of C. C. Huffaker-a son.

Narrow Escape.

On Monday Mr. Hand borrowed a wagon from W. A. Morrison for the purpose of hauling some goods down to J. C. Hart's, below Camp 37. Mr. Hand made the trip with his load all right, but coming back he missed the ford and the current proved too strong for his craft. The wagon swung around knocking off one wheel, the horses lost their footing and team, wagon and man were carried down stream. Mr. Hand, however, maintained his presence of mind, and finally caught hold of a clump of willows, to which he tied the wagon. He was obliged to strip off the harness in order to save the team, which he finally succeeded in doing. Mr. Hand may congratulate himself on escaping with his life. If we had to ford the Truckee we should always use bridge.

Successful Test.

We omitted to say yesterday that the public test given by Chas. Burckhalter, of the California Fire and Water-proof paint, was a complete success. The test was made at the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street, in the presence of a large number of citizens and property-holders. Mr. Burckhalter first applied a small bon-fire to his miniature roof, which had received two coats of paint. The fire burned upon the roof with applications of coal oil for fifteen minutes; it was then removed and coal oil was tried alone. The shingles were charred, but could not be made to burn. The roof was then ripped up to show that the shingles had not been soaked in any preparation. Everybody was satisfied that Mr. Burckhalter travels for a prime article in the way of paint. T. F. Laycock is the local agent.

PANTS.—That ethereal soul, Dr. Mary Walker, is very sick at Washington, suffering under an attack of pneumonia. The Fulton (Illinois) Times says that "she pants for glory." This is a shame. But suppose that you gentlemen readers desire a fine pair of pants for work-day or Sabbath, what better place could you go to than M. Nathan's?

Burglary.

The case of the State vs. Emmett Jones, was set down for trial this morning in the Justice Court, but for several good reasons was not tried. If the examination was held this afternoon its result would necessarily be ascertained too late for publication. We therefore give the particulars of the burglary as we have learned them since its commission. Messrs. Block & White were informed some two weeks ago that one or more parties had in their mind a purpose and perhaps laid their plans to rob the Reno Exchange. To thwart any such determination, the windows of their saloon were most securely fastened and each night the doors were locked and bolted. Last Friday evening young Jones was in the saloon, but retired much earlier than usual. He had taken the precaution, while unobserved, to remove the fastenings from the window in the lower card-room. About 9 o'clock Saturday morning, he and others, perhaps—at all events he went in at this window and began his burglarious work. Some 3,000 common and 400 Havana cigars were safely packed out, and part of them stored under the sidewalk in front of Dr. Hogan's office. Considerable whiskey, champagne and six bottles of absinthe were next carried off. The combination of the lock to the counter drawer, it seems, Jones had ascertained, and this money drawer was therefore opened. Fortunately, however, only eight short bits were found in this till.

The estimated value of the stolen articles has been set down at $400, a part of which has been recovered. The officers were promptly informed, and on Sunday afternoon the party who committed the crime was apprehended and placed in jail. The means of his detection are not a little peculiar, and are as follows: Meyers, the negro who has a boot-black stand between the Arcade and the Exchange, rose very early Saturday morning to sweep out the saloons of both places. He saw Jones walking away with part of the stolen property, and had confessed the same to Meyer, and agreed to share it with him if he would not appear as a witness against him if he was arrested. The statements which we now withhold are somewhat contradictory, and will probably appear in the trial. Further, for several reasons, we will not publish them at this time. Jones accused Meyers of giving him away, and made a sufficient confession to beyond all question designate him as the guilty party. Of course he will be held over to appear before the next grand jury.

No Session—No Sabot.

Contrary to the general impression, there was no session of the Board of Commissioners to-day. Mr. W. H. Joy was in attendance, also Mr. Hymers and Deputy Clerk Mann. Mr. Hymers stated that the Board adjourned last night for one month, although it might be convened before that time. There had been no action taken upon matters connected with the grand jury report. Mr. Hymers did not know that there would or would not be. He did not know that any course had been decided upon. In short, he did not know anything about the disposition of this very important matter.

Mr. Beck, believing there was a meeting, intended to call the attention of the Commissioners to certain points of the report, upon which immediate action should be taken. He was informed, however, that the Board stood adjourned, and he declined Mr. Joy's offer to convene the Board especially for his hearing.

Mr. Beck, of course, appeared only as a tax-paying citizen, and did not feel disposed to call the Board together against their manifest disposition. We had a conversation afterwards with Mr. Cain, and he seemed to know even less about matters than Hymers. When asked whether his advice to the Board was ready for submission, he said he did not know, and we then began to suspect that "Don't know" was the court-house password for this quarter. These gentlemen may find it convenient not to know as present, but we hope that after two or three more juries meet, some little interest may be felt in this matter. We understand that Cain has prepared certain points in his advice and the Commissioners will talk over these privately. Then they will know.

MISSION SERVICE.—The Passionist Fathers will open their mission in the Catholic church of Reno on Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock, and close it on Monday, the 13th inst, immediately after the eight o'clock mass.

FATHER PETTIE.

Circus, Museum and Menagerie.

There is nothing in the range of popular entertainments that appeals so effectively to the popular heart and to arouse popular enthusiasm as the announcement of a circus, museum or menagerie. When both these are combined in one, it becomes doubly attractive unless it proves to be a combination of a broken down circus or played-out menagerie, in which case it takes the public but a short time to discover the humbug. But a really good entertainment of this kind is emphatically the people's show. All patronize it without regard to age, sex or condition in life. No one ever saw at a circus the warning, "Children in arms not admitted." Such a prohibition would, by common consent, be regarded as a direct blow at rights and liberties of the people, and would be resented by that large class who deem it the greatest privilege of the whole year to look up the house and take the entire family out to witness a show of this kind. Everybody will remember the "Great Forepaugh," who exhibited his circus, museum and menagerie in this State last season—the splendid collection of animals; the wonders of the museum; the acts in the arena, etc., all of which ranked his monster concern as a first-class institution. But this season the millionaire showman has added largely to his hitherto famous show, in way of new and attractive features, new performers and splendid golden chariots, one of which, "The Chariot of the World," built for Mr. Forepaugh the past winter at New York, is universally considered as the most artistic in design and most elaborate in workmanship of any vehicle ever manufactured in the United States. These, together with new tableau cars, Roman war chariots and mardi-gras carnival characters of colossal proportions, as in the fables of old, all go to swell the new and attractive features that are to appear in this city to-morrow.

TROUBLE BREWING.—To-morrow will be circus day, and that is saying a great deal. Adam Forepaugh, the envy of every youth in the land, will be here at the head of his monster combination. The rings will be coated with sawdust, the tin foil will shine, the lion will roar at the bear, and the monkey make remarks about the baboon. No use in talking, nothing like a circus. Everybody goes and stands upon his head, in a Pickwickian sense. Going to a circus properly is something of a fine art. You want a pocketful of peanuts, and should be in your seat just as the clown sings: "The elephant now goes round and round. The band begins to play. These boys around the monkey's cage. Had better keep away."

BOWERS' MANSION.—In about two weeks' time Nat Holmes will have the Bowers' Mansion fixed in capital order. He will about the 20th be prepared to receive his friends in a style entirely satisfactory and pleasing to themselves. We know of no place in this State which surpasses Bowers' Mansion for picnic purposes. The main building is large, commodious and elegant in structure and arrangement. The grounds are spacious level and well shaded. The bathing pond is one of the most complete resorts of the kind we have ever seen. The swings, dancing hall, croquet grounds, etc., are all arranged in excellent taste and highly adapted to the pleasure of a party, or several parties, who wish to spend one or more days at this delightful retreat.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following is the roll of honor at the "School for Girls," for the month ending May 3d, 1878: Mary Hornback, 98.6; Lizzie Miller, 98.6; Nettie Chase, 98.5; Jessie Kirkpatrick, 98.4; Mollie Grippen, 98.3; May Carr, 98.2; Gerrie Hatch, 98; Virginia Morrell, 98; Emma Vanderleith, 97.5; Alice Galloway, 97.2; Lillie Kaust, 97; Minnie Miller, 97; Hattie Lewis, 96.6; Emma Noltemeier, 95.6. KATE A. SILL, Principal.

AND AGAIN.—A number of the Washington ladies, leaders in society, are boasting, all same Chinawoman, of their little feet. Mrs. Blackburn, a lady of avoirdupois, wears a No. 1 shoe, which is just about as suitable as it would be for any one to buy a boot or shoe in Carson, instead of going down to John Sunderland's and pecking from his large assortment the article you wish.

BIG BUGS.—Jas. Fair, Billy Woods H. M. Yerrington and other notables came up from San Francisco this morning, and took the morning train for Carson and Virginia city. Fair looks as if he was enjoying the best of health.

Jottings.

—Pat McCourt, of Oakland, and Jack Magee, of Virginia, were in town last night.

—McFarlin's paint shop is full of vehicles.

—F. C. Updike will please call at this office.

—Irrigation is the rage with the ranching population.

—Donnan Thompson will play here May 26th.

REFORMED.—The County Commissioners refused to allow $5 80 traveling expenses to the last grand jury. Salaried and feed officers have always been allowed such expenses in working up Chinese and fish cases to cost the county. It is held, however, that it is unwise to encourage any strong movement towards lessening the expenses. Those Commissioners ought to allow themselves $5 80 worth of leather medals.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.—Remember the pleasant ice cream festival to-night at the Baptist church. The ladies of that congregation have prepared a programme of literary exercises which will precede the delectable viands, and the frozen cream is a palatable dish for the gods.

NO COMPARISON.—You may talk about the sensations of a tourist when Yosemite first strikes his eye, but what may be your idea of the soul-yearning which fills a boy of ten when he first realizes the privileges of a circus attache, and knows that every American has a right to aspire.

PERSONAL.—B. F. Bacon, for a long time Mayor of Boca, has moved his household goods to Reno, and will make his home on the raging Truckee, (or words to that effect.) Mr. Bacon is an energetic business man, and we are very glad to welcome him as a citizen of Reno.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaac, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boys' clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and under wear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-28-tf
